Prayer in the silence after communion

God, our refuge and strength, bring near the day when wars shall cease and poverty and pain shall end, that earth may know the peace of heaven through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Today is also Remembrance Sunday

The celluloid of a photograph holds them well
 Six young men, familiar to their friends.
 Four decades that have faded and ochre-tinged
 This photograph have not wrinkled the faces or the hands.
 Though their cocked hats are not now
 fashionable,
 Their shoes shine. One imparts an intimate smile,
 One chews a grass, one lowers his eyes, bashful,
 One is ridiculous with cocky pride -
 Six months after this picture they were all dead.

The first stanza of Ted Hughes' poem Six Young Men, inspired by a photograph of six young men taken at Lumb Falls near Hebden Bridge early last century. All six were killed in World War I.

Tea & coffee are served in the Hall after the morning service, plus lunch today!

Readings next Sunday, 2nd Sunday Before Advent: Daniel 12.1-3 (reader: Jenny Black);
Hebrews 10.11-14, 19-25 (reader: Freda Evans); Mark 13.1-8 (Gospel: Helen Reid). Intercessor: Leslie Fletcher

What is the Pilgrim course? Pilgrim is a major new teaching and discipleship resource from the Church of England. It aims to help every local church create a place where people can explore the Christian faith together and see how it can be lived out each day. It approaches the great issues of faith not through persuasion, but participation in a pattern of contemplation and discussion with a group of fellow travellers.
