

Tea & coffee are served in the Hall after the morning service - all welcome

Last night	Thanks to all involved in preparing last night's convivial Harvest Supper
Looking ahead
27 September ~ Tuesday	7.30pm Evening Prayer, followed at 8.00pm by Needlecraft Group meeting
22 September ~ Thursday	10.00am Holy Communion
1 October ~ Saturday	10.00am – 1.00pm at Ladybarn Social Club: Macmillan Coffee Morning 9.45am – 3.00pm at St John's Heaton Mersey: day conference Encouraging Anglicans from Minority Ethnic Communities . Mark is planning to attend and would welcome comments or questions he could raise.
8 October ~ Saturday	7.00pm Ceilidh at Union Chapel with Maggoty – a great band + excellent caller
11 October ~ Tuesday	7.30pm at William Temple Vicarage: Through a Mirror Dimly – an invitation to explore the perplexities of faith and discipleship. See poster for more details.
15 October ~ Saturday	12.00noon – 3.00pm Buffet lunch in church for Christian Aid's Speak Up week on climate change – a bit like the Big Brekkie for Christian Aid Week. Jeff Smith MP has been invited, which gives us an opportunity to express our concern that climate change threatens the people and places we love, both here in the UK and overseas. Much more next week! Offers of help to Leslie Fletcher.
St Paul's Withington	... want photographs of weddings, baptisms, confirmations, Sunday school or anything at St Pauls to display at their 175 th Anniversary service on 23 October.
Jam jars	Sheila Newbery needs more jam jars so she can make more jam to sell for church funds. Pickle, coffee &c. jars are not suitable as the strong smells linger.
John Milner RIP	The undertaker has told us that the retiring collection at John's memorial service raised just under £500, divided between Christian Aid and Oxfam.
Next Sunday, Nineteenth Sunday after Trinity, Proper 22
Habakkuk 1.1-4; 2.1-4 (reader: Opal Walsh), Psalm 37.1-9 , 2 Timothy 1.1-14 (reader: Freda Evans), Luke 17.5-10 (Gospeller: Colin Powell). Intercessor Helen Reid	