Today's Eucharistic Prayer: E

Prayer in the silence after communion

Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love. Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created. And You shall renew the face of the earth.

Collect for Pentecost

Holy Spirit, sent by the Father, ignite in us your holy fire; strengthen your children with the gift of faith, revive your Church with the breath of love, and renew the face of the earth, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Post-Communion for Pentecost

Faithful God, who fulfilled the promises of Easter by sending us your Holy Spirit and opening to every race and nation the way of life eternal: open our lips by your Spirit, that every tongue may tell of your glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Dismissal for Pentecost President: Filled with the Spirit's power, go in the light and peace of Christ. Alleluia, alleluia. Response Thanks be to God. Alleluia, alleluia

>>>Who helped with Christian Aid Week – counting not quite complete but a total of over £800 has been raised from the Big Brekkie and the house-to-house collection
 >>>Who participated in "Thy Kingdom Come".
 Asked "After Manchester, how do we pray 'Thy Kingdom Come'?" Archbishop Welby replied: "Those injured and bereaved in Manchester are beginning a long, hard and cruel journey. For all of them we mourn, we lament, we cry out. And we pray. We pray 'Thy Kingdom Come', for a kingdom where his peace shall know no end, where none shall mourn and there will be no more tears. Prayer moves us closer not only to God, but to one another. It connects us with those whom we otherwise cannot see. Prayer breaks down division, in prayer we take each other's hands and find our safe stronghold."
