Craig Ward); Matthew 15.[10-20]21-28
(Gospeller: Helen Reid), Intercessor: Jenny Black

Today's Eucharistic Prayer: G

Prayer in the silence after communion

Lord of heaven and earth, as Jesus taught his disciples to be persistent in prayer, give us patience and courage never to lose hope, but always to bring our prayers before you; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Collect for Tenth Sunday after Trinity

Let your merciful ears, O Lord, be open to the prayers of your humble servants; and that they may obtain their petitions make them to ask such things as shall please you; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Post-Communion: 10th Sunday after Trinity

God of our pilgrimage, you have willed that the gate of mercy should stand open for those who trust in you: look upon us with your favour that we who follow the path of your will may never wander from the way of life; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Tea & coffee are served in the Hall after the morning service - all welcome

Next Sunday, Eleventh Sunday after Trinity, Proper 16

Isaiah 51.1-6 (Reader: Jenny Black); Ps. 138; Romans 12.1-8 (Reader Diane Wynn); Matthew 16.13-20 (Gospeller: Colin Powell), Intercessor: Helen Reid

- Sunday 24 September Harvest Festival

Increasing use of the Community Hall

Requests to use our Hall by groups displaced from the Community Centre will mean the Hall being used on three mornings each week from September:

- On Monday mornings: Sure Start "Stay and play" parent and toddler group
- Wednesday and Thursday mornings: Lunch and activity club for older people

It is expected that these groups will use the Hall until the Community Centre becomes available again, at which time we would expect them to consult the PCC about returning to the Community Centre.

The increased use of the Hall has several benefits:

- Providing hospitality for valuable community activities;
- Bringing St Chad's to the attention of many more people from the local community;
- Greatly strengthening the case being made in grant applications for Hall improvements;
- Bringing in much needed funds – about £2,000 in this calendar year.
