Prayer in the silence after communion

God our saviour, look on this wounded world in pity and in power; hold us fast to your promises of peace won for us by your Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ.

Collect for the Fourth Sunday after Trinity

O God, the protector of all who trust in you, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy: increase and multiply upon us your mercy; that with you as our ruler and guide we may so pass through things temporal that we lose not our hold on things eternal; grant this, heavenly Father, for our Lord Jesus Christ's sake, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Post-Communion for 4th Sunday after Trinity

Eternal God, comfort of the afflicted and healer of the broken, you have fed us at the table of life and hope: teach us the ways of gentleness and peace, that all the world may acknowledge the kingdom of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

Next Sunday, Fifth Sunday after Trinity, Proper 11: Genesis 18.1-10a (Reader: Leslie Fletcher); Psalm 15; Colossians 1.15-28 (Reader: Trena Radcliffe); Luke 10.38-42 (Gospeller: Opal Walsh)

| From Leslie Fletcher | On Sunday 4 August I am doing RideLondon for the second time. This 46-mile charity bike ride is an annual event, on roads closed to traffic for the day. I have set up two pages on www.justgiving.com/ one for Christian Aid and one for Greater Together Manchester, the charity which organises the Greater Manchester Winter Night Shelter. Any sponsor money I receive cash-in-hand I will pass on to Food4All at the Church of the Apostles in Miles Platting. Each Sunday afternoon Food4All volunteers cook and serve a free hot meal to around 80 people using food that would otherwise be dumped in landfill. |
