(Gospeller: Mark Hewardine), Intercessor: Mark Hewardine

Prayer in the silence after communion

Merciful God, your Son came to save us and bore our sins on the cross: may we trust in your mercy and know your love, rejoicing in the righteousness that is ours through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Next Sunday, Fifteenth Sunday after Trinity, Proper 18: Exodus 14:19-end (Reader: Peter Knight), Psalm 124, Romans 14:1-12 (Reader: Jenny Black/Diane Wynn), Matthew 18:21-35 (Gospeller: Opal Walsh), Intercessor: Helen Reid

Collect for 13th Sunday after Trinity

Almighty God, who called your Church to bear witness that you were in Christ reconciling the world to yourself: help us to proclaim the good news of your love, that all who hear it may be drawn to you; through him who was lifted up on the cross, and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Post-Communion for Trinity 13

Father of Light in whom is no change or shadow of turning, you give us every good and perfect gift and have brought us to birth by your word or truth: may we be a living sign of that kingdom, where your whole creation will be made perfect in Jesus Christ Our Lord. Amen.

October

1.00pm – 3.00pm. Great Sacred Music, St Chad's turn to host an afternoon service of readings, reflections and songs from the great classical music of our religious heritage. This happens every Saturday during term time, in a different church in the Diocese. The service led by the HeartEdge Manchester Clergy and Choral Scholars.

Security

There was an attempted theft during the communion at a recent morning service so please take care of your belongings. Today, and in future when there is communion, somebody will be posted at the back of church to reduce the likelihood of further incidents.

Generosity & Thankfulness

Please take home and read the letter from our Rector about giving to support our church. Please also note that our Card Reader is available every Sunday for giving. We will also resume circulating our collection plate during Sunday service in the near future.
